SUIT TO ESCHEAT THE WALTERS FUND

County Board of Education Insti- tutes Action to Secure Ben- efit for County High School

Suit to require the trustees of the Walters Collegiate Institute to turn over funds in their hands, understood to be about $10,000 to the county of Madison to be used for county school purposes, has been filed in the Madison circuit court, and will probably come up for hearing at the forthcoming February term of circuit court.

The suit largely affects educational interests of Richmond and in the petition which is filed by Attorneys R. C. Oldham and John Noland, on behalf of the Madison County Board of Education, much of the educational history of the city in recent years is recited. The petition alleges that under laws, it cites, the Walters Fund has been escheated to the county. The petition in full, reads as follows:

Madison Circuit Court,
Board of Education of Madison
County, Ky., Plaintiff,
vs. Petition in Equity.

The Walters Collegiate Institute, of Richmond, Ky., Plaintiff.

The plaintiff, the Board of Education of Madison county, Ky., states that the defendant, the Walters Collegiate Institute of Richmond, Ky., is a corporation created and existing by virtue of the laws of the state of Kentucky, and is empowered by charter and by such laws to sue and be sued, contract and be contracted with and to conduct the business of operating and maintaining in Richmond and in Madison county, Kentucky, a collegiate institute.

Plaintiff says that section 323 of the Kentucky Statutes, Carroll's edition of 1915, provides as follows:

"If any society holding lands shall dissolve, the title to such land and appurtenances shall invest in the trustees of the county seminary in which the land may lie, for the use of such seminary; and if there be no such seminary, then in the county court, for benefit of the common schools in the county. The provision of this chapter shall not apply to the socalled Shakers who shall have the same right to acquire and hold real estate as they have had prior to the passage of this law."

Plaintiff says that section 192 of the present Constitution of Kentucky, provides as follows:

"No corporation shall engage in business other than that expressly authorized by its charter, or the law under which it may have been or may hereafter be organized; nor shall it hold any real estate except such as may be proper and necessary for carrying on its legitimate business for a longer period than five years under penalty of escheat."

The plaintiff says that the defendant corporation was created in the year 1901 as indicated by its articles of incorporation which are on record in the office of the clerk of the Madison county court, in Deed Book No. 52, on page 48, and that certified copy of said Articles of Incorporation are filed herewith as a part hereof of marked Exhibit A; that first amended articles of incorporation of defendant corporation herein are also there recorded in Articles of Incorporation book, Vol. 1, on page 53, and that certified copy of said amended articles is filed herewith as a part hereof and marked Exhibit B; that second Amended Articles of Incorporation of said defendant corporation are also there recorded in Articles of Incorporation book, Vol. 1, on page 61, and that certified copy of said second amended articles is filed herewith as a part hereof and marked Exhibit C.

Plaintiff says that in about the year 1874 that a college was organized to be conducted in Richmond, and that, by special act of the Kentucky Legislature, the said college was incorporated as The Central University of Kentucky; that said college was organized by and through the efforts of the Southern Presbyterian Synod of Kentucky; that said college did operate in Richmond, Ky., until near or about the year 1901 at which time said Central University was consolidated with Centage College and the school removed from Richmond, Ky., to Danville, Ky. At the time said school was moved from Richmond, Ky., there was a peaceable and satisfactory agreement as to the adjustment of the property rights of the people in what was then and to this day known as the college campus property in Richmond, Ky. A good many private subscriptions had been made by citizens resident of Richmond, Ky., and Madison county, who were interested in the cause of higher

$500 REWARD FOR NIGHT RIDERS

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 28—Immediate grand jury investigations, a reward of $500 for the arrest and conviction of each person implicated, and National Guard units ready for emergency call are the steps taken today to handle the night rider situation in its incipience in Bath and Fleming counties.

Governor Morrow offered a reward of $500, the highest amount allowed by law, and, following the announcement of Circuit Judge Henry R. Prewitt that he would convene a special grand jury Friday, the Governor held a conference with Adjutant General Jackson Morris in regard to readiness of four cavalry troops, stationed at Louisville, London, Manchester and Louisa, all of which have received horses and at least partial equipment.

Judge C. D. Newell, whose grand jury at Flemingsburg will reconvene Monday, has been requested by the Governor to deliver a special charge to the jurors in regard to the activities at Sherbourne.

BAIRD'S SLAYER TO BE TRIED FEB. 4

Shelbyville, Ky., Jan. 28—R. D. Prewitt, slayer of Sam K. Baird, who was acting Commonwealth's Attorney of this district, will be tried here a week from Friday—Feb. 4th—unless something intervenes to prevent it.

Arraigned before Judge C. C. Marshall, he was granted a continuance to that date on motion of his counsel.

With its motion the defense filed an affidavit setting out that Prewitt suffered from a nervous breakdown; that he has had no examining trial; that on account of his illness it has been impossible for him to confer with counsel; that all his property has been levied on and because of that it has been necessary to call upon his friends in other parts of the state before he could secure counsel; that he did not secure any counsel until January 17, and no local counsel until January 24, and that the attorneys had not had sufficient time to prepare a proper defense.

Sheriff Roberts said that Prewitt seemed highly nervous on the journey to Shelbyville from Louisville. His only comment, the sheriff said, was to say that he "had to do what he did and only wanted justice." There was no crowd to greet the prisoner and absolutely no sign of a demonstration.

Deputy Sheriff Tandy Chenault and Policemen Tom Perry and Jack Hughes met the car at Simpsonville and rode in with the prisoner.

Mrs. W. C. Gormley received news late Thursday evening of the death of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Stone Gormley, at Coburn, W. Va. She had been ill of influenza and pneumonia and was thought to be improving when she was taken with an attack of the heart, death resulting in a short time. She is survived by her husband and three small children, who have the deepest sympathy of Richmond friends in their bereavement. Mrs. E. M. Hutchinson and Mr. Buford Gormley left at once for Coburn to be with their brother and to attend the funeral services.

Prominent Young Couple Wed at Stanford

Friend and relatives here were interested to learn of the wedding at Stanford Thursday of Miss Jean McCord Hocker to Mr. Morgan Smith Baughman. Miss May Phelps, a cousin of the bride, went over to attend the wedding. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Hocker, a few miles west of Stanford, in the presence of the immediate family, the Rev. Mr. H. J. Brazelton officiating.

The marriage came as a great surprise to the many relatives and friends of the young couple, since there had been no announcement of their engagement. The bride is the elder of the two lovely daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Hocker, and since her debut last June following her graduation from Sayre College she has been very popular socially and admired for her beauty, charm and many lovable traits of character. Mr. Baughman's the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Smith Baughman, and is a prominent young farmer.

The bride wore for her wedding a pretty tailored suit of blue with hat to match. Her corsage was of sweet peas and lilies of the valley.

Miss Mary Katherine Hocker was her sister's only attendant. After a brief bridal tour they will make their home at the Baughman homestead on the Somersett pike near Stanford. The congratulations and good wishes of a host of friends follow them.

CECIL'S WIFE ASKS $200 A MONTH

An allowance of $200 a month heretofore made by the Boyle county circuit court at Danville having been stopped by a decision of the Court of Appeals, says the Louisville Times. Mrs. Rebecca T. Cecil made a motion before Judge Wallace, Thursday, that she be given a similar allowance by an order of this court during pendency of an action for divorce filed by her husband, James G. Cecil, of Danville, a recent candidate for Commissioner of Agriculture.

James Garnett, attorney for Mrs. Cecil, said that when the domestic troubles of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil first arose in Danville several years ago, the judge there appointed a receiver for Melrose Farm, famous breeding establishment owned by Mr. Cecil, and ordered the receiver to pay Mrs. Cecil $200 a month. Mrs. Cecil defeated the divorce action in the Boyle circuit court and later the Court of Appeals held that the receiver for the farm should not have been appointed, thereby stopping the allowance.

Before the Appellate Court decided the case Mrs. Cecil moved to Louisville with two children and Cecil subsequently filed another action in the local court for a divorce on ground of abandonment. Counsel said Cecil enjoys and income from an estate of an approximate value of $350,000 which is tied up in a trust fund.

Judge Shackelford Miller, attorney for Mrs. Cecil, was given a copy of the affidavit filed by Mrs. Cecil and will send it to his client at Danville, and the case was passed one week to await his counter-affidavit.

Lexington, Ky., Jan. 28—Shutting the door with an ax, Prohibition Agent J. H. Hanlon led a raid on a garage at a home two miles from Lexington on the Versailles pike, and found 75 cases of whisky, all covered with burlap sacks and tarpaulins.

Chief Enforcement Agent U. G. McFarland and other federal men made a search of the premises. Following the raid the federal officers announced that they believed the premises were being used as supply depot for bootleggers and "blind tigers" operating in Lexington and Central Kentucky.

The federal agents acted under a search warrant obtained from Commissioner Charles Wiard at Frankfort. Twenty-five empty whisky cases were found in the basement of the home, the prohibition agents alleged, and the charred remains of other cases were found, showing attempts, they charged, to burn the cases to eliminate discovery. The liquor was valued at $18,000.

France Defies Bolsheviks

Premier Briand of France in his first address to the senate and the chamber of deputies makes it plain that France will consider herself under obligations to resist any attempts of the soviet government of Russia to invade the territory of any ally of France in the world war.

Reports are thick regarding the plans of the Russian Bolsheviks to attack Poland in the spring and it is significant that the French premier should take cognizance of these reports by warning the soviet leaders of Russia that invasion of these countries will be regarded as an attack on France. The timely aid of France to Poland last summer turned the tide of the war between the Russians

France has large quantities of arms and ammunition, left over from the world war, and these supplies could probably be placed in the hands of the Rumanians, Poles and other peoples of eastern Europe and the Balkans, who might be willing to join in holding back the Russian reds. Great Britain is pretty well occupied with affairs at home and the problem of dealing with India, and it is not unlikely that Germany would be willing to take the risk of herself being Bolshevikized if Poland and Rumania could be punished by the Russians. France appears to be the only nation in western Europe that dares take a vigorous stand against the reds.

"Taulac Has Done Me More Good Than Everything Else I Have Taken in Six Years," Says Richmond Citizen

"Taulac has done me more good in a few weeks' time than everything else I have taken in six years put together," said W. T. Eubanks, 1412 Stewart street, Richmond, Va., who is employed at the Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad shops.

"I had been a victim of catarrh of the head and stomach," explained Mr. Eubanks, "for a number of years, and I became almost dyspeptic. I lost my appetite and what little I did eat a pressure that almost cut breath. I had no relish for food; nothing tasted right or with me. My sleep was unsound and I invariably got up in the morning with that tired feeling and rarely ever drew a full month's pay on account of having to lay off from one to three days a week.

"The first few doses of Taulac helped me and I have found it suited my case exactly. I am now feeling better in every way than in a long time. My appetite is splendid and what I eat tastes good and makes me feel stronger. I am never troubled with indigestion; that tight feeling has disappeared from my chest and my breathing is free and easy. I sleep fine at night, get up mornings feeling thoroughly rested and am able to put in full time at my work every day."

Taulac is sold in Richmond by Stockton & Son; in Berea by the Welch Department Store, and at College Hill by Ginter Bros.

formerly rector of Christ Church here before twelve of his peers in the Episcopal church, on a charge of violation of an ecclesiastical canon in having performed a marriage ceremony for Alfred du Pont, millionaire powder manufacturer of Wilmington, Del., and Miss Jessie D. Ball, of Los Angeles, was being considered today, according to church officials.

A resolution was adopted at the convention of the diocese of Los Angeles assuring the Rt. Rev. Joseph H. Johnson of the support of the convention should he decide, as bishop of Los Angeles, to call Mr. Lee for trial.

The charge, it was said, would be violation of Canon 42, which forbids performance of the marriage ceremony by an Episcopal clergymen when one of the parties is divorced and has a former spouse living.

Mr. du Pont's marriage to Miss Ball took place here last Saturday.

The Best Cough Medicine

When a druggist finds that all his customers speak well of a certain preparation, he forms a good opinion of it and when in need of such a medicine is almost certain to use it himself and in his family. This is why so many druggists use and recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. J. B. Jones, a well known druggist of Caburn, Ky., says, "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family for the past seven years, and have found it to be the best cough medicine I have ever known."

THE MADISON NATIONAL BANK

Substantial Old Financial Institution, a Bulwark of a Splendid Community

It will be fifty years next March since the Madison National Bank was organized and set about the task of aiding in a financial way the various interests of Madison county, especially those of agricultural import, which was then, as now, a chief source of revenue and traffic.

During these years this old reliable banking institution has acted its part well in the drama of business progress, and through its power and influence the community has experienced a more active and prosperous business life, because it afforded the means that sets the wheels of progress to moving and which have continued to revolve more smoothly and more swiftly as each year of its useful career passes by.

It has been a pioneer institution which has amply and abundantly met every financial condition which has arisen from time to time. Today the county of Madison and Richmond an enterprising and prosperous city, owe in a large measure their present high standing in the state to the financial aid and influence of their pioneer banking institution.

The Madison National Bank had sixteen original stockholders and of this number probably ten were men worth $100,000 each. They were one of the most substantial set of business men who ever started an enterprise in Madison county. Dr. Thomas S. Moberly was elected the bank's first president and his name was synonymous with integrity and wealth. Some of the institution's original stockholders were John A. Duncan, Alexander Tribble, Benjamin Boggs, R. J. White, Samuel Bennett, Thomas D. Chenault and David A. Chenault.

Most of these men are still well remembered by the older citizens of Madison county. Banking was a very different proposition in 1871 from that of today. The basis for the bank's currency was a six per cent government bond, so the profits were available with small deposits. Then taxes were very small, also. Silas T. Green was the bank's first cashier. He was the largest stockholder in the enterprise, owning 400 shares of stock. Mr. Green had received his training in a branch of the old Northern Bank of Kentucky. He was very prudent man with the bank's money; in fact, too conservative, but his integrity was never questioned by any. After a few years he was made president of the bank and Mr. C. D. Chenault, who was the original clerk, was made the cashier. Mr. Chenault is still living in Lexington and is the last of the original stockholders or officers living.

In 1878, Mr. Green disposed of his holdings at public outcry. The bank's stock became more scattered and quite a number of young men became stockholders. Among them was A. Rollins Burnam. Mr. Burnam was elected a director of the bank and in 1879 was chosen as president of the institution. He continued to serve in this capacity until he was elected to the appellate court in 1896, at which time he moved to Frankfort and was compelled to resign. He with Mr. Chenault were discreet money-lenders and it was often said that the old Madison National Bank was never caught with a bad debt. The dividends made by the bank were very handsome, being about six per cent semi-annually.

In 1900, Mr. Chenault retired from the cashiership of the institution and was succeeded by Robert R. Burnam, the present cashier. Three years prior able banking house 17 years.

The foregoing is just a brief history of the Madison National Bank. It has been an institution which has been officered by strong men since its inception, and while the personnel of its directorate has changed as the years have rolled by, the morale of the organization has been the very best, and the conduct of affairs generally entrusted to such an institution has always been on the highest and most profitable basis.

The bank has been very successful during the past 20 years, having never missed a dividend during that period. With a capital of $125,000, surplus of $62,500 and total resources of approximately One Million Dollars, this enterprise transacts a general banking business, exercising all the functions usually incident upon institutions of this nature.

Waller Bennett, the bank's president, is a large property owner and is well known in this section for his progressiveness.

Robert R. Burnam, cashier of the Madison National Bank, is well known in this locality as honest and conscientious in his every undertaking. He believes that a bank should serve the public as well as make profits for its stockholders. Through his sane policies he has added greatly to the otherwise normal growth of the bank.

N. B. Deatherage is vice president of the bank. He is a farmer.

WEEKLY MARKETGRAM

(From U. S. Bureau of Markets) Grain

The beginning of the week's grain trading was marked by steady decline until the 22nd, when report that Belgium had secured a loan of twenty million dollars in U. S. caused prices to advance. The advance continued until the 23rd, but subsequent bearish sentiment caused selling and prices dropped about 7¢ in two days. Report that Argentina probably would not place super tax on exports and would permit around forty-seven million bushels of wheat to be exported free of super tax was a depressing factor. In Chicago cash market No. 2 Red winter wheat 19-22¢ over March No. 2 hard 5-7¢ over new No. 3 mixed corn 6¢ under May, yellow 6¢ under. Minneapolis reports lighter four trade with No. 2 dark northern cash wheat in good demand at 8-10¢ over Minneapolis March. Kansas City reports milling and export demand fair with No. 2 dark hard wheat 3-9¢ over Kansas City March. For the week Chicago March wheat lost 9 1-4¢, closing at $1.63 3-8¢; May corn 1 1-4¢ at 76 3-8¢; Minneapolis March wheat down 11 3-8 at $1.53 7-8¢; Kansas City March 9¢ at $1.59 1-2¢; Winnipeg May 13 5-8¢ at $1.58¢. Chicago May wheat 15 3-8¢.

Hay and Feed

Stormy weather and bad roads curtailed hay shipments in west. Receipts light, timothy prices fairly steady at recent decline. Alfalfa quoted $15.20 over last week's price. Demand limited, low grade prairie almost unsaleable. Eastern markets dull because of light demand. Quoted No. 1 timothy New York $22.50; Cincinnati $26; Chicago $23; Minneapolis $20; No. 1 alfalfa Kansas City $25; Omaha $11; Minneapolis $15. A slightly better inquiry is noted for feed stuffs in northwest, but Chicago, Kansas City and other western markets report a decidedly weak tendency. In Kansas City wheat mill feeds are quoted $2 lower than last week and linsseed meal and cottonseed meal are considerably easier in the Chicago market. No. 1 alfalfa meal in poor demand; quoted at $22. Kansas City reground oat feed quoted at $11; Chicago immediate shipment $12 February shipment. Hominy feed both white and yellow in liberal supply. Quoted bran $25.50; middlings $23. Minneapolis 36 per cent, cottonseed meal $28.20; Memphis 43 per cent, cottonseed meal sold at $26-33¢. Chicago linsseed meal $39; Minneapolis, $40. Buffalo, Chicago $40.50; white hominy feed $25. $24 Chicago and $24 St. Louis; beet pulp $38; northeastern and seaboard markets.

Dairy Products

Butter markets for most part weak and unsettled, but business on the 26th indicated that tone is firmer. The heavy arrivals of Danish at New York have moved slowly at around 49-50¢. Prices 92 score, domestic: New York 50¢, Philadelphia 50 1-2¢, Boston 50¢, Chicago 45 3-4¢.

Cheese market continued to maintain firm tone throughout week, but during the past few days business has been dull. In Wisconsin the tone seems to be not quite so fast as a week ago. Prices at Wisconsin primary markets average 1-4-1-2¢; lower; twins 21 1-2¢; dairies 25 1-2¢; double dairies 24 1-2¢; longhorns 27 1-4¢; young Americans 27¢.

Cotton

Spot cotton prices as reported by the 10 designated spot cotton market, closed around 14¢ as compared with 14.67¢ two weeks ago. New York March futures down 111 points, closing at 14.32¢.

Livestock and Meats

Compared with a week ago the Chicago market showed decline on cattle and hogs and moderate advances in sheep, lambs and veal calves. Hogs lost 15-50¢; beef steers 5-70¢; cows and heifers weak to 50¢ lower; feeder steers showed an extreme decline of 50 per 100 pounds; fat lambs advanced 50-55¢; yearlings 25-50¢; fat ewes 25¢ per 100 pounds. January 26 Chicago prices, hogs, bulk of sales, $9.15-9.60; medium and good beef steers $7.75-9.75; butcher cows and heifers $4.60-89; feeder steers $6.50-8.80; light and medium weight veal calves $11.25-81.50; fat lambs $9.25-$11.50; feeding lambs $8.25-$10.25; yearlings $8.50; fat ewes $4-86.

A mighty valuable booklet just issued by the Ford Motor Company. It is yours for the asking. Drop in and get one or drop a card or letter and we will mail you a copy free.

This book is not what the Ford Motor Company has to say about the Fordson Tractor, but what the tens of thousands of users have to say. Get the book! It is yours for the asking. Keep in mind the fact that behind every Fordson Tractor are all the resources of the great Ford Motor Company, likewise that reliable "Ford After-Service" which assures the keeping of the Tractor in working order every day in the year. Remember also that the Fordson Tractor, like the Ford car, is simplicity itself in design and construction; easy to understand and easy to operate. Come in and let us tell you more about it. It is more important to the farmer today than anything else.

The Age of Machine Power on the Farm is no longer a matter of speculation; it is here—an established fact. It is the latest advanced step civilization has taken. It comes to the farmer with the full promise to lift the great burden of drudgery and wearisome, wearing-out toil from the muscles of man and carrying them with much more profit by power of machinery, with the result that larger production, more comfort and greater wealth will come to the farm homes wherever the Fordson is employed. Come in and talk it over.

IN THE MOVIES

Modern Daniel Among Lions

Modern Daniel in the lion's den is revealed in the third chapter of Vitagraph's newest and most gripping chapter play, "Fighting Fate," which will be the feature at the local then-tres Saturday. Wm. Duncan, the intrepid film star, is the man who takes his life in his hands, and goes the Biblical character one or two better. Instead of having just lions lie their claws at the sight of him, he has a whole menagerie of the fiercest beasts of prey giving vent to howls and anticipatory pleasure at the morsel set out for them. Tigers, leopards, bears, and wolves vie with the tawny jungle leaders in their fierce and wellnigh successful attempts to make a meal of the million-dollar-a-year screen stars—as costly a repast as ever recorded.

Is Adapted To Screen

The attraction at the local theatres for next Tuesday will be the Paramount Artcraft screen version of Jack London's famous novel, "The Strengthen the stomach and enable it to be in several respects out of the ordinary. Striking sea scenes, including a collision between a ferryboat and schooner filmed on the very locale of the story—San Francisco Bay—are among the features.

Having One On The House

Myles McCarthy, the veteran actor who enacts the role of the master crook in J. Warren Kerrigan's latest Brumpton production, "The House of Whiskers," released by W. W. Hodkinson, will be shown at the local theatres Saturday. He has the typical Irish weakness for relating exaggerated stories. This is his latest:

"The other night I worked late at the studio and motored home alone. Passing a house in the suburbs of the city I saw a man standing on the roof apparently drinking from a flask.

"What's the idea?" I yelled.

"Sh-h-h," returned the man, "I'm havin' one on the house."

Would Shut Down Gas Works

"My stomach has been so filled with gas for the last three years that I felt could pretty nearly supply our town. I also had frequent pains in right side of region of the appendix. Doctors didn't help much. One day my neighbor told me about what May's Wonderful Remedy had done for him and I got a bottle of our druggist. I can say that it will do all and more than you claim for it." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Sold by H. L. Perry & Son and druggists everywhere.

SUIT TO ESCHEAT THE WALTERS FUND

education in the county and of these a man, S. P. Walters, was the largest contributor. Plaintiff says that upon the consolidation of Central University with Centre College that there was an agreement that certain parts of the land and buildings which had been operated and used by Central University were conveyed to the Eastern Kentucky State Normal School and that the remaining part of the tract of land now known as the college campus, was conveyed, with the permission of the Presbyterian Synod of Kentucky, to certain trustees who formed and organized a corporation to accept said conveyance as a gift and as a trust and the corporation was organized under the laws of the state of Kentucky in the year 1901 and named and known as The Walters Collegiate Institute, of Richmond, Ky., and the same is defendant herein.

Plaintiff says that the objects and purposes for which the Walters Collegiate Institute, defendant herein, was created and set forth in the charter of said corporation to be

"To unite the friends and supporters of higher education in Madison county and the State of Kentucky to establish at Richmond, Ky., a collegiate institute of high order."

and plaintiff says that this said school was established at Richmond, Ky., and for a time maintained by the said trustees as the Walters Collegiate Institute in fitting tribute to memory of S. P. Walters, one of Madison County's public spirited citizens who had contributed generously to the cause of education in the county.

Plaintiff says that on the coming of the Eastern Kentucky State Normal School to Richmond, that the defendant, ceased to maintain or to make any effort to maintain said school and that defendant did on the day of 19—, sell and convey or contract to convey to the said Normal School all of the lands and appurtenances thereto belonging which had been conveyed to said defendant in the year 1902 as a gift and a public trust for the very uses and purposes for which the Walters Collegiate Institute, defendant corporation herein, was created and plaintiff says that since that day and date this defendant has failed to carry out the trust imposed upon it by the deed of conveyance under which said property was acquired by this defendant, by the contract with the Central University of Kentucky and by the agreement with the Southern Presbyterian Synod of Kentucky.

Plaintiff says that the Walters Collegiate Institute, defendant herein, acquired title as aforesaid to certain lands and certain buildings thereon situated by deed from Central University of Kentucky which deed together with certain agreements and contracts and resolutions with reference to the property so conveyed is recorded in the office of the clerk of the Madison County Court in deed book No. 53 on page 430, and certified copy of said instrument is filed herewith as a part hereof and marked Exhibit D. Plaintiff says that a part of the consideration for said conveyance is described in a contract which is made a part of said deed of conveyance as follows:

"That second party, The Walters Collegiate Institute, of Richmond, Ky., is to open in said buildings a first class collegiate institute to be known as The Walters Collegiate Institute of Richmond, Ky., and not only to establish, but to continue and maintain such collegiate institute."

Plaintiff says that the defendant did on or about the 24th day of November, 1919 abandon all intention of carrying out the trust for which defendant corporation was organized and did then cease to make any effort to maintain the Walters Collegiate Institute at Richmond, Ky., and that defendant did on or about November 24th, 1910, lease the lands so acquired by this defendant, to the Eastern Kentucky State Normal School together with the buildings thereupon situated; that said lease remained in effect until about the 8th day of May 1914, at which time this defendant sold the land and the buildings acquired by this defendant as herein described, for a consideration of ten thousand dollars which sum was paid by the Eastern Kentucky State Normal School to this defendant in four payments of twenty-five hundred dollars each, said payments being made in February, 1915, January, 1916, January, 1917, and in June, 1920. Plaintiff says that defendant holds a fund which it is not using to promote the cause of higher education in Madison county, Ky., and that in failing so to do, defendant is holding said fund in violation of law and without legal right so to do. Plaintiff says that said fund includes ten thousand dollars received from Eastern Kentucky State Normal School with payments of interest made to defendant and also certain payments received by said defendant for rent on the

JOHN NOLAND,
Attorneys for Plaintiff.

Plaintiff says that the Walters Collegiate Institute, defendant herein, has violated and failed to perform its trust, that it has abandoned any idea of operating or maintaining in Richmond, Ky., and in Madison county, a collegiate institute of high order and that said fund properly and rightfully under the laws of the state of Kentucky, belongs to this plaintiff for the use and benefit of the schools of Madison county, Ky. Plaintiff says that there is no County Seminary in Madison county, and that, therefore, the title to this fund should, according to the law of this state, vest in the County Court for the use and benefit of the schools of Madison county.

Plaintiff says that upon it becoming apparent that Madison Female Institute could not be maintained in Madison county, that the trustees of said buildings over to local school authorities and that with the help of this fund, the Madison High School could be made a joint County and City High School and used for the purpose of teaching the boys and girls of Richmond, Ky., and in all Madison county, and, in plaintiff says, that in so doing the law would be satisfied and the original intention of the Walters trust would be carried out in letter and spirit.

Therefore plaintiff, Board of Ed.
